Miss Mansfield on the Stand in the Stokes Trial

NEW YORK July ... Josephine Mansfield ... the ... [illegible] ... After the ... [illegible] ... night ... [illegible]

... What ...

Answer ... [illegible]

Question ... the take ...

Answer—He took out ... [illegible] ... It was a nice pistol silver mounted and I think had an ivory handle. He said you had better release me from the thing. I said yes, if you come out publicly and acknowledge I was right, and that the affidavits against me were frauds. He said that as far as he was personally concerned he would, but there were so many persons involved he could not do so. Then I said I must withdraw. Then said he, taking out his revolver, I will kill Stokes and there will be blood shed before you get through. I told Stokes and advised him to be careful. On another occasion Fisk showed her affidavits which he had gotten up against the character of Eaton, at the same time admitting that they were false and that Eaton was an honorable man. After that being greatly excited told her blood was to be drawn. He went out, came back at 12 very nervous and told her Eaton had been attacked but whether he was killed or not he could not tell. Then he was very nervous and could not rest though usually he was a very quiet man and always wanted to go to sleep. [Laughter] Miss Williams ... heard him threaten to kill Stokes.

The witness was cross examined.

... had eight or ten pistols. They were accumulating as he got presents of pistols. I knew him in November 1869. I knew Stokes in 1869. I resided on Twenty third street for three years. He was usually tired when he came in and wanted to sleep, but ordinarily was an active man. Fisk did not call at my house on the day of the shooting. The first I heard of the shooting was about ... or 6 P M. A newspaper reporter came round and spoke to my cousin. I did not go down to see him about it. Fisk was a very moderate drinker. I was introduced to Stokes by Henry Hardy of the Erie Railroad, who is interested in Fisk's business. Fisk used to carry a ... at the time of the Susquehanna and Jersey City d... cut ... and at other times. I have never seen Stokes since the shooting until to day.

Marietta A. Williams, a cousin of Miss Mansfield, was the next witness, and testified to the truth of the statement in regard to Fisk threatening Stokes' life and Stokes' testimony in regard to his threats to imprison him.

During Stokes' evidence Miss Mansfield sat with a fan in one hand and a smelling bottle in the other listening to the evidence.

When Stokes entered the court this afternoon he bowed and she returned the salutation, and turning to Miss Williams remarked "poor fellow how grey he is." She wore a large gold cross on her breast and heavy gold bracelets on her arms. She faced the jury, sitting immovable, leaning forward with her eyes fixed on the prisoner while he told his story. During the examination the Court room was packed to the doors. After recess Josie left, followed by her companion. She sailed out of the room with the air of a Grand Duchess. Her appearance excited much comment and crowds followed after her down stairs.

From Baltimore.

BALTIMORE July 8.—A number of Delegates arrived this afternoon. Nearly all the delegations are now full. Over 600 have been registered at headquarters. As on yesterday the principal subject of discussion to day among the delegates has been the question of a straight nomination or simply an endorsement of the Cincinnati nominees. The Missouri delegation held another meeting this morning and were unanimous for adhering to their policy of nomination. They appointed a committee of three and passed a resolution authorizing similar appointment of committees of all other States to meet to night to confer on the subject and settle the question before the meeting of the Convention to morrow.

At a meeting of the National Executive Committee at noon the question was argued in regard to the election of a temporary Chairman.

At a meeting of straight Democrats at Maryland Institute this afternoon not more than 200 were present, the majority of whom were spectators. Of delegates who will not support Greeley if nominated there were not more than 25 at the meeting. A committee of ten was appointed to make arrangements for holding a Convention to morrow. In numbers and importance the movement is too insignificant to have any weight with the Democratic Convention.

The indications are that Greeley will be nominated ... enthusiasm.

The National Democratic Convention this afternoon unanimously selected Thomas Jefferson Randolph of Virginia temporary president of the convention. ... Vance of ... was selected for temporary secretary.

The proposed convention of representatives of the liberal party during the session of the National Democratic Convention is said to be abandoned.

NEW YORK July 9.—A Baltimore special says that the New York delegates have decided to present the name of Augustus Schell or ex Sheriff Kelly for Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee.

The World's Baltimore dispatch says a telegram has been received there to the effect that Murat Halstead would to day renounce Greeley in his paper the Cincinnati Commercial. The opposition to Greeley appears to be insignificant in point of numbers, but some of the bolters are very bitter. They are circulating pamphlets against Greeley—some rehearsing his life from an opposition standpoint and others protesting against the transfer of the Democracy to sore head Republicans.

The Filth in New York

The "Liberal" Canvass

[From the Boston Advertiser June 27]

There has been nothing in the political history of the country to compare with the frenzy of Mr Greeley's managers to get a unanimous indorsement for him at the Baltimore Convention. The promises made by the Enemy of Mankind bear no comparison to those made by the commercial travelers in his service and in the service of his committee. Illinois is one of the strongholds of the deserters. From the moment Lincoln was nominated for the Presidency two factions declared war, namely those who got office and those who could not get them. The so-called Liberal Republican movement in that State is led by the last of these factions. The conditions have been changed a little, but not materially, since that time. Mr Lincoln was embarrassed, Mr Johnson was encouraged, Gen Grant is again embarrassed by the fact that the loyalty of a considerable number of "leading men" in that State depended upon the amount of executive patronage they could control. There was not enough for all of them; there is hardly an office, not even a postoffice or an inspectorship, or anything else bearing the stamp of the Government, for one in ten thousand voters, and there is not a desirable office for one in a million. But the failure of the minority to control this wretched and miserable patronage has led to a hue and cry of which the Democratic party is only too glad to take advantage.

The Illinois Democrats held their State Convention at Springfield yesterday. The encouragement given them by the Chicago Tribune, and by sundry politicians who thought they carried the Republican party of that State in their pockets, handed them to believe that they have a chance to succeed this year by giving up the name of their organization and dividing the State and district offices among themselves and their new allies. To carry out this plan with a show of decency a Greeley Convention is held at the same time and place, but the delegates to both conventions are the same; it is a Democratic convention with a side show. John Wentworth, taking a conspicuous part in the show, remarked that "Greeley was sure to be nominated at Baltimore," and added, with strange ignorance of history, that the "decree of a Democratic Convention is always final." Nobody knows better than that politician, dyed-in-the-wool, that such a decree now-a-days is always fatal. It is not yet known how the offices will be apportioned. Mr Greeley's representatives show that the governorship should be tendered to a Democrat, and modestly suggest that they should alternate on each successive office. This is the new civil service reform. But as there is some doubt whether even under this equitable management there may be votes enough to defeat "the Grant ticket," some further concession is talked of on the part of the malcontent Republicans to induce the steady going Democrats to vote for the patched up ticket. The vigorous opposition of the Chicago Times, though it may not lead as it has formerly done, is still a voice crying in the wilderness, and must either be conciliated or resisted.

It was not the ticket, however, but the management of the conventions, that excited the chief interest. The problem was how to make the trade without exposing the process. The game now going on in Illinois is to be repeated in all the Middle and Western States which the Democrats have a chance of carrying. It is an open trade between the Democrats, who surrender the name and form of their national organization, in return for such assistance as Mr Greeley and his friends may be able to give them in the States and districts where they have a chance to win.

The French War Spoil in Germany

[From the Pittsburg Gazette]

The war indemnity paid by France to Germany is the largest sum ever paid by one country to another in so short a time. The grand total, exclusive of certain amounts of unadjusted interest, amounts to 1,441,487,061 thalers, or reduced to American gold something over one thousand and fifty two millions of dollars ($1,052 286 211 52). This puts the finances of the German empire on a very substantial and comfortable basis, and will permit the repair of the ravages of war, increase of the national armament, payment of pensions, etc., without resort to taxation, and still leave a splendid balance in the imperial treasury for distribution among the several German States and to meet future emergencies.

A Berlin correspondent of the London Times gives a detailed statement of the uses made of the golden stream flowing from France by the Imperial Government. M Thiers received back two millions of dollars as the price of the Alsace Lorraine railways. The first disbursement made in Germany was twenty eight millions of dollars to indemnify corporations and private persons for damages sustained by military operations; four and a half million dollars was paid for losses sustained by German ship owners, a million and a half to Germans expelled from France, three millions to the families of the Landwehr, eight and a half millions to increase the rolling stock on the railways of the annexed provinces, and thirty millions of dollars was set apart for the next campaign, the Prussian reserve fund of nearly the same amount thus being done away with; pensions, eleven million dollars to reimburse the custom house, fifteen millions of dollars, and seven millions has been deposited in the ... of the empire to meet all deficiencies in prompt collection of the revenue hereafter. The sums disposed of by special laws enacted during the last eighteen months amount to about $170 000,000.

A bill has just been introduced in the imperial parliament to dispose of the remainder of the indemnity, amounting to over seven hundred millions of dollars. It is mainly to be devoted to the construction of fortresses and military buildings in Alsace and Lorraine, and the ... of the efficiency of the army ... What is left in the hands of the government will be distributed among the States of the German Empire, three fourths of the sum to be divided in proportion to the number of men equipped for the war by the local governments and the remaining fourth to be distributed according to the inhabitants of the various States. This arrangement confers an overplus of something like one and a half millions of dollars on the South German States—the armies of which did not come up to their full percentage—at the expense of the wealthier North. The law will gradually fill to overflowing the treasuries of the different States of the empire, enable a reduction of taxation, and what is thought a great ... in Germany, permit the Department of Public Instruction to reap some of the benefits of the golden stream.

Certainly all this presents German finances in a glowing light, and in financial solvency places that empire at the head of European nations; but it is a striking fact that this increase of national wealth has had no effect in staying German immigration to the United States. It is now—and has been for half a year—setting in at an unprecedented rate, and while the imperial treasury may make a brilliant showing, the empire itself is losing a source of national wealth in the hundreds of thousands of hardy and industrious emigrants who annually find their way to this country, of far greater moment to the power of the nation than the indemnity exacted from France. This is our gain, and the Emperor William's loss, and for it we are indebted in a great measure to the unrelenting conscription laws of the empire. It is the price paid for the position of Germany as the great military power of Europe.

POLITICAL NOTES

It is often amusing to see how the Democracy try to court the colored vote. Says the Memphis Appeal, frankly: "The black man is our 'colored citizen' when he votes for us, but otherwise he is a dam nigger."

Judge Stanley Matthews, Chairman of the Cincinnati Convention, having repudiated Greeley, now repudiates the Fifth Avenue Hotel nominations, and now goes for Grant without an "if" or a "but."

Voorhees is terribly in earnest about having nothing to do with Greeley at Baltimore. He says "I would rather of a dark night risk the perilous edge of some Alpine precipice on top of a drunken mule."

More reform! Mat. Brennan, Sheriff of New York, whose stealings aggregate millions, is Mr. Greeley's active manager in that city. Tweed, Connolly, Hall, Morrissey, Sweeney, the Wa..., Meany and Brennan. The line stretches out and there is room for the reformers.

The Hartford (Ct) Courant, referring to the efforts making in certain quarters to belittle the military achievements of Gen Grant, says "We shall consider ourselves fortunate if we get through the campaign without witnessing the production of affidavits that Grant was never actually in the command of our troops at all."

Gilbert McMaster, Attorney at Law of Pittsburg, Pa., writes to his brother in this city (Portland) as follows: "Pennsylvania will elect our State ticket, and November will show a vote for Grant and Wilson which will surprise all the west. Write it, tell it, to your far off Western men, that the Keystone State, J. W. Forney, Esq., of the Philadelphia Press to the contrary not... ing, means all this. Be of good cheer, we have them. The Convention of the 9th July at Baltimore, where our first blood was shed in 1861, don't scare us worth a cent."

Within the past thirty nine months the Republican party, under President Grant, has ... the debt about $332,000,000 ($331,945,...), ... taking off $140,000,000 taxes. In the ... time the Tammany rulers—the now ... and for a long time the secret allies of Mr. Greeley ... $28 000,000 from the New York city treasury.

FOREIGN NOTES.

A National Army Medical Convention has been called at Berlin, at which foreign ... have been invited to be present.

The Archbishop of Canterbury has three ... belonging to him in virtue of his position. Two in or near London and one in K...

When Rochefort was brought on board the man-of-war that was to take him to New Caledonia, he distributed 2,000 francs among the ... of the ship.

A movement is in progress in England to petition the British Parliament to take over the railways into their own hands to make State railways of them.

The regiment in the English Army known as the Royal Welsh Fusileers always have a goat with gilded horns which takes his place at the head of the band on the march.

The European papers state that an American impresario has offered Offenbach one hundred thousand dollars to come to this country and lead in the performance of one hundred performances of his opera. What next?

The Parisians just now are in a high state of indignation because Nilsson and Patti are not singing this season in that city, because it does not pay. The singers are charged accordingly with ingratitude.

A misguided woman kept twenty stray dogs in safety through the whole siege of Paris, although offered two hundred francs apiece for them by a neighboring butcher. For this act of folly the society for the protection of animals have voted her a medal.

Belfast, Ireland, is the scene of a most determined strike and lock out. Only seven or eight of all its numerous mills are working, and it is calculated that at this present time no less than thirty thousand working people are idle. No prospect of a settlement at present appears. The masters will not go beyond an advance of 2s, and the men will not accept less than 3s, so that all this stagnation is caused by a difference as to 1s a week in wages.

THE GREELEY MOVEMENT.—The whole Greeley business, from the first week in May down to the present time, has been the development of a deliberately planned ... of political desperadoism to capture the Baltimore Convention by filling it with packed delegations. Mr Greeley's confidential advisers—Fenton, John Cochrane, Bill Tweed, the Blairs and some other politicians of "fly-blown reputation"—knew perfectly well from the start that unless they could capture the Baltimore Convention by the corrupt arts so well understood by demagogues of their kind, and so forcibly indicated and reprobated by Senator Schurz in his Cincinnati address, their man would have less chance of getting the nomination of that convention than he would of getting a nomination from Grant's convention at Philadelphia. Knowing this, they have bent every effort and moved every possible instrumentality of political corruption to dictate to the Democracy and pack and label and forestall the action of the Baltimore Convention precisely as the Philadelphia Convention was packed and labelled and forestalled.—Chicago Times

The peace part of the Boston jubilee had a peculiar illustration yesterday morning at rehearsal. One of the German Grenadier Band chanced to encounter during rehearsal a couple of members of the Garde Republicaine band, and with gentlemanly courtesy, at once saluted them. They were among the few real Frenchmen in their organization. Instead of returning the salute they made faces at the Deutscher and spat as an expression of disgust. The big fellow stood a moment evidently pondering whether he should knock their heads together or not, and then passed on with a contemptuous smile. There is peace between the representatives here of those nationalities but there is no fraternity.

WEDNESDAY MORNING [illegible]

The R[illegible] Prefigured

[illegible] ed as loud [illegible] Republican States [illegible] Mississippi [illegible] diana are given to Greeley. New York [illegible] of course is put down for the Greeley [illegible] many coalition. This is a very convenient way of figuring out an election. Not one of the States above named, with the possible exception of New York, is at all likely to go as indicated in the Herald's table. [illegible] believe that New York will. With the overthrow of Tammany seventy thousand majority in New York city is no longer a possibility. Of the success of the Democracy of New York in the last Presidential election Mr Greeley said:

> The vote of our State was stolen from General Grant by the foulest most audacious conspiracy and gigantic fraud. She is far more decidedly Republican than Pennsylvania [illegible] ever was; she was carried for Seymour and Hoffman by crimes that ought to fill fifty State Prisons to overflowing.

It remains to be seen whether Tammany reinforced by Mr Greeley can repeat this achievement in 1872. Of course nine tenths of Mr Greeley's support will come from the party whose acts Mr Greeley has thus described. Only a year ago he told us further that—

> The one thing a Tammany Democrat cannot abide is an honest election. The Ring makes no attempt to conceal its determination that repeating shall not be stopped, even if that dearest privilege of the party have to be defended with the slung shot and iron dog.

It may be, indeed, that the "reformers" expect by an alliance with those whose methods as thus described to carry the heavy electoral vote of New York and thus obtain a majority in the electoral college, and this may be what inspires them with so much confidence. One thing is certain, viz: Tweed, Sweeney, Hall, Brennan, Rynders, Winans, and all the rest are backers of the "national reform" movement, which can't be expected to succeed without their help.

Grant's Merits Stated

Upon General Grant's accession to the Presidency a great number of those who had supported his election, with some who had not, sought office at his hands, or expected him to bestow it unasked. He was unable to gratify their aspirations. Their lamentations mingled with the howls of the disappointed made up a very doleful dissonance, whereof the only meaning deducible runs thus: "General Grant is found wanting—his administration is a failure." "Failure?" how? in what? Have we not peace and plenty in the land? Is not our flag displayed and respected on every sea? What foreign foe molests or threatens us? Who fears insurrection at home, or invasion from abroad? Yes, General Grant has failed to gratify some eager aspirations, and has thereby incurred some intense hatreds. These do not and will not fail; and his administration will prove at least equally vital. We shall hear lamentation after lamentation over his failures from those whose wish is father to the thought; but the American people let them pass unheeded. Their strong arm bore him triumphantly through the war and into the White house, and they still uphold and sustain him, they never failed, and they never will.

Lest some carping reader should say that the above eulogizes Gen. Grant too highly, we may as well state that it is an extract from an editorial article from the pen of Mr Horace Greeley, which appeared in the New York Tribune before the Cincinnati Convention. It explains exactly how Grant was unable to comply with the wishes and demands of certain persons who had supported him for the Presidency, how, in consequence they "set up lamentations mingled with howls of disappointment," how "Gen Grant failed to gratify some very eager aspirations, and thereby has incurred some intense hatreds,"—which, it may be remarked, is the whole basis and support of the present movement to defeat his re-election. But Mr Greeley tells us that the people still uphold Gen. Grant, that "they have never failed him and never will." Are these things any the less true because Mr Greeley has swallowed his own utterances for a Presidential nomination, relying for his election on the party which he has said contains the ignorance, vice and disloyalty of the country with all the slums and law-breaking elements.

Horace Greeley on the Democratic Party

REPUBLICANISM RESTS ON A RADICALLY DIFFERENT BASIS FROM DEMOCRACY, AND IS SUSTAINED BY WHOLLY DIVERSE CONSIDERATIONS. IT LIVES BY INTELLIGENCE; IT DIES IN THE [illegible] FLING ATMOSPHERE OF IGNORANCE. [illegible] CAN [illegible] MOST ANY TOWNSHIP IN THE LAND AND [illegible] GUISH THOSE WHO TAKE FROM THOSE WHO [illegible] TAKE A NEWSPAPER, AND TO [illegible] THAT TWO THIRDS OF THOSE [illegible] REPUBLICAN, WHILE THREE [illegible] NOTHING BUT A CHANCE [illegible] FEW MOMENTS IN A BAR ROOM VOTE THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET, AND WILL NOT BE PERSUADED TO TOUCH ANY OTHER.

THE World RECENTLY GAVE A [illegible] COUNT OF THE DENS AND DENIZENS WHICH [illegible] THE FIVE POINTS [illegible] "SLUMS" OF OUR CITY—A CLASS [illegible] IN THE SCALE OF BEING THAN [illegible] HEATHEN [illegible] ON EARTH. WE [illegible] OUR COTEMPORARY TO STATE [illegible] WHETHER THE PUGILISTS, BLACKLEGS, THIEVES [illegible] KEEPERS OF DENS OF PROSTITUTION [illegible] WHO MAKE UP SO LARGE A SHARE [illegible] INHABITANTS [illegible] NOT ALMOST [illegible] DEMOCRATS.—Horace Greeley.

When the Dallas Republican wants to abandon the policy of land grants for railroads and suggests that the Government shall issue money bonds instead, it simply proposes to give up a settled and practical policy which has produced results of the most brilliant description, for a visionary notion which will result in nothing. [illegible]

tion to go back on one of the principal [illegible] in the record of the party. [illegible] kind the philosophy of [illegible] sense in it. [illegible] fool and a prating [illegible] that we should [illegible] and a fool and a prating [illegible] own conscience [illegible]

It is [illegible] Jackson [illegible]

[illegible] in the land will deem it necessary to resort to such means.

Education—Scholarships

[illegible] of the State. [illegible] The growth of the [illegible] plan of work as well as the instruction is vastly in advance of the buildings in which they are [illegible] institution [illegible] lack of taste [illegible] serve. How to secure better buildings has been the problem. The endowment funds are sacred. It is well that they are so. The support of the teachers is of the first importance [illegible] the institution has no other [illegible] present means. Sale of scholarships which draws upon means of future support for the sake of securing the temporary advantage of buildings is usually a bad expedient. When there is an endowment however to depend upon, and when the scholarships are limited in duration, it seems a suitable way to achieve the object.

President Marsh has shown us a specimen of a scholarship that will commend itself, we think, to every one's judgment, whether disposed to purchase or not. It is cheap: two hundred and fifty dollars for twenty five years is the price. The purchaser is not taking chances that after he has given the money and the buildings are up there will be no institution. That is already provided for. The ample endowment, the largest enjoyed by any institution in the State, secures it. The purchaser, while securing instruction at a reduced rate, gains also increased facilities for the instructors, and so in this way gains for himself. Besides, last but not least, he is doing an excellent thing; he is helping a deserving institution to a position of greater influence. This matter will commend itself to the consideration of those interested in education, and we trust will receive such attention as its merits deserve.

The "Know Nothing" Charge

And now an attempt is made to cast odium on Henry Wilson, Republican candidate for Vice President, by asserting that twenty years ago he acted with the Know Nothings. That he may have supported any party he could find to beat the slave driving Democracy is probable enough. But that he ever acted in a proscriptive manner toward citizens of foreign birth, is not true. This is more than can be said of many who are now shining lights among the Democracy. Mr Greeley himself went farther in Know Nothingism than Mr Wilson ever did. A correspondent of the New York World points out this fact in a letter from which we take the following extract:

> You will find in the New York Express of August 21 1858, a speech from Horace Greeley from the same stand with J T Headley, advocating a fusion ticket of Republicans and Know Nothings, at Kingston, New York. Mr Greeley said "he concurred generally and heartily in the propositions they had adopted." One of the resolutions urged the passage of a "law excluding the foreign born citizen exercising the same franchise." I presume the Tribune of the same date contains the speeches, etc. This was Mr Greeley individually. The Tribune urged fusion upon the same State and county officers, and said, "We trust it may be found practicable in the Congressional districts."

> The Pittsburg Leader, one of the most spirited and spicy papers in Pennsylvania, has come out in support of the Democracy of that State. Its publisher is John W Pittock, brother of H L Pittock, the publisher of the OREGONIAN.—Oregon Herald.

The Pittsburg Leader supports Buckalew, Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, for local reasons, but it does not support Greeley. It favors Grant and predicts his election.

NEW PUBLICATIONS

The following books have been received from A L Bancroft & Co, San Francisco:

A Compendious Grammar of the Greek Language. By Alpheus Crosby, Professor in Dartmouth College. Woolworth, Ainsworth & Co, New York.

This is a "Middle Grammar" of the Greek Language. It is constructed on the same general principles as the author's larger Greek Grammar, which has been long before the public and which has met with unusual favor. We know of no work on the grammar of any language which is constructed on more scientific principles than Professor Crosby's Grammar of Greek, yet it has been felt that there was something too much of it for the common learner. This Middle Grammar has been prepared with a view to present a condensed edition, and to arrange the materials with more perspicuity and clearness for the minds of beginners.

OREGON

The Salem folks are well pleased with Vivian's entertainments.

Salemites complain because the cars don't run at times to suit them.

Jacksonville Lodge I O O F has just received a new Mason & Hamlin organ for their Lodge room, direct from New York.

J L Royal informs the Statesman that many farmers in the Umpqua Valley have mowed their oats for hay, the stalk being too short to cut otherwise.

The three cases of small pox reported in Marion county grew out of the fact that one man's nose turned the color of a beet on account of his great conviviality.

There has been a change in the proprietorship of the Jacksonville Democratic Times. Messrs J W T Miller & Co have sold out to T B Kent and Jas A Miller.

The Jacksonville Times says: "Brooks, the murderer of Marory, at Fort Klamath, was brought to town by Capt Goodale's company last Thursday and lodged in jail. Yesterday he had a preliminary examination before Justice Wade and was dismissed as the testimony tended to prove that he had acted in self defense."

The Times says: "Business at Ashland seems to be flourishing, and the different local enterprises appear to be in a prosperous and healthy condition. The Academy building is approaching rapidly to completion, and adds greatly to the beauty of the place. Ashland was in a forsaken condition on the Fourth, nearly everybody going to the celebration in Jacksonville."

We are in receipt of the annual catalogue of the Corvallis College for 1871-72. From it we judge the institution to be in a flourishing condition. During the year just closed there have been in attendance 145 students, classified as follows: Senior class 5, sophomore and junior class 13, freshman class, 21, preparatory classes 84, primary classes, 22. The first session for 1872-3 will begin on the 4th of September next.

The Oregon City Enterprise started the falsehood that William Marshall, who voted the Radical ticket in Portland on June 3d, about three or four times and swore in his vote, was convicted of perjury," and the Jacksonville Times republishes it. No man by that name has been tried or indicted here for perjury. William Marshall was tried and convicted of larceny, and the Enterprise must have made its story out of that fact. Nobody has been either indicted or tried or complained of in our courts for swearing in their vote on election day.

THE TERRITORIES

The apple crop in Montana will be very large this year in proportion to the number and age of the trees.

Work on the Dakota Southern railroad is progressing rapidly. The contractors have commenced work on the Big Sioux bridge, to which point the grading is nearly completed.

A correspondent of the Courier complains of the Postmaster at Steilacoom because he don't distribute the mail as often as it arrives. If the fact exists, it is good ground for complaint.

Orson Hyde, Captain of the Mormon Apostles, has been stricken with apoplexy. If fatal, there will be a lively contest for the position, as there are a great number of aspirants for apostolic honors.

There are serious apprehensions of an outbreak of the Utes in the southern part of Colorado Territory. The people thereabouts are preparing for war, and in representing their condition to the General Government ask for military protection.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 10 1872

CITY.

BUSINESS OF PORTLAND.—As indication of the activity and growth of trade in Portland, it is well, as the progress of improvements in our State, it may be said that one firm here sold, week before last, $15,000 worth of agricultural machinery and hardware. From a gentleman, an old resident, who has lately made a tour through the Wallamet and Umpqua valleys, we learn that the farmers throughout the section of country in [illegible] are almost universally encouragingly engaged in adding all the modern improvements to their farms, rebuilding their barns, fences, etc., and generally taking advanced steps in the [illegible] pursuit of agriculture. The time has passed in Oregon when the farmers are content with enjoying the spontaneous productions of the soil and living off the returns of their orchards and a few cows and chickens. The business men of this city who furnish the supplies for the country feel very sensibly the impetus given to trade by this improved state of things, and are daily undertaking new enterprises to meet the demands of the era of progression which has dawned upon the country. Although in some instances a want of foresight has brought about a tightness in money matters, yet all will acknowledge that the "old fogies" who used to be found in abundance in Portland have dwindled down to an insignificant number, and that right thinking men whose [illegible] is sound are convinced of our growing and permanent importance as a commercial center. Upon the development and improvement of the [illegible] depend the growth and prosperity of the city, and to any one who understands the agricultural and mineral resources of Oregon, and its [illegible], the fact that Portland is destined to march steadily forward, and maintain her reputation for business activity, is an evitable sequence. Trade is no longer conducted here on the one horse plan of 1860, and our merchants and business men generally are becoming more and more convinced of the fact.

[illegible] BELIEVE IT.—About three years ago there came from Missouri to Oregon a man about 45 years of age. He was one of Pap Price's regular butternut fellows—an unflinching Democrat, and, of course, had a hearty hatred of Horace Greeley. When he landed in Portland, among the acquaintances he formed was one of our street politicians, and from him our Missouri friend took his cue in political matters. After remaining in Portland about a year, he moved away from town and settled about [illegible] miles from here, since which time he has lived, as we might say, by himself in the woods, taking no newspaper and keeping very far behind in the matter of the news of the day. He came to town only on rare occasions and made no [illegible] inquiries in reference to movements in the [illegible] world. Last Saturday he came into town, not having been here before for over four [illegible]. He happened to meet his old political friend, and incidentally the subject of the Presidential election came up, and "old Missouri" asked who the Democrats were going to run this time. His friend told him the National Convention had not met yet, but that they would soon meet, and it was thought Horace would be the Democratic candidate. "Who?" said Missouri. "Horace Greeley," was the reply. "Pshaw, man," said he; "you needn't think I'm a d—d fool. Why, that old villain is the meanest abolitionist in the United States. I've heard of him ever since I was born, and I think he is to blame for more of the troubles in the South than all the balance of the vile abolition crew." So intense was his hatred of Greeley, and so utterly surprised was he at the news of Greeley being a candidate of the Democracy, that he would not and could not be made to believe that what his friend told him was true, and went back home under the full impression that it was a joke that was sought to be played upon him. A forcible illustration of the "eternal principles."

CHEESE FACTORY.—Mrs. Hannah M Smith, who resides in this city and owns a splendid farm on the Columbia river, near the mouth of Sandy, has laid us under obligations for a large piece of cheese of the best quality. Mrs S has been engaged in manufacturing cheese on her farm for some time, and succeeds in producing an article which, for quality, is pronounced by good judges to be fully equal to any made in the State. Some of it was on exhibition at the State Fair at Salem last fall and was looked upon as being a superior article, though as to whether it received a premium we are not informed, but we know that the specimen sent us yesterday deserves a premium for richness, good flavor and freshness, in all of which qualities it is excellent.

TO MEET.—In compliance with an order from the Circuit Court, the Grand Jury for this county will convene at the Court House this morning. The object will be to investigate a number of cases which have come to the surface since the adjournment of the Grand Jury. The following will receive their attention: Cornelius Gil[illegible], charged with murder; Thomas Smith, charged with adultery; Charles Roebuck, for perjury, and Benjamin Marshal and Z Wilson for subornation of perjury.

TO THE ASYLUM.—Dr Renfrew, of Eugene City, it will be remembered, was adjudged insane [illegible] months since and removed to the Asylum. Subsequently he recovered, was discharged, and taken to his home. A few days ago he was attacked again with the same misfortune, so that it was deemed prudent and advisable to send him back to the Asylum. He was brought down yesterday.

DREDGING.—Dredging has been suspended for some weeks, during the high water. During the time the dredgers have undergone some necessary repairs to the machinery, etc. The "dipper" is now being repaired at the iron works, and a new "[illegible]" is also being constructed. Everything will be in complete running order, and dredging will be resumed about the first of August.

PAY IN ADVANCE.—Our new County Clerk has adopted the plan of requiring pay for all services rendered by him "strictly in advance." We mention this so that all people who have business to transact in that office, papers to file or be recorded, may provide accordingly. It will save trouble to the officers, and is no more than fair and what the law allows them.

GOOD TEMPLAR PICNIC.—The Good Templars of Washington county propose holding a grand picnic at Hillsboro on next Saturday. A number of talented speakers have been engaged to deliver addresses on the occasion. The affair promises to be a grand event. A free dinner will be had in an adjoining grove. A general invitation is extended to the public.

COLUMBIAN HOSE COMPANY.—On last Sunday evening the regular monthly meeting of Columbian Hose Company No 3 was held, and the election of the following officers for the ensuing half year took place: President, David Wilson; Secretary, H D Chapman; Treasurer, Charles H Mills; Foreman, George Maxwell; 1st Assistant, [illegible] Griffin.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The Circuit Court was in session yesterday. The case of the State vs Charles Grant occupied the forenoon in the argument of the opposing counsels. The cause was submitted to the jury about 1 o'clock. The afternoon was occupied in the trial of the State vs William [illegible]son, indicted for larceny.

A PROPOSITION.—A proposal has been made to the Government by the Oregon and California Stage Company to reduce the time between this city and San Francisco to three days in consideration of the additional sum of $60,000 being paid them for such reduction.

ASSAULTED.—A Chinaman was arraigned yesterday before Judge Denny on a charge of assaulting H. Fleckenstein with a knife. After an examination of the case the Chinaman was held to answer before the grand jury. In default of bail he was taken into custody.

PHYSICIAN'S BULLETIN.—At the drug store of [illegible] A. Higly & Leeson, corner of Alder and First streets, is a bulletin board on which are placed the names and locality of offices of the prominent physicians of the city. [illegible] convenient as a reference.

ARRIVED.—Dr Alston, who has been over to the Sound country for the last [illegible] months, returned last evening to this city. He has been [illegible] professional visit and has met with remarkably good success. He expects to remain here till the 15th of next month.

LEAFLESS TREES.—About nine-tenths of the trees set out on the Plaza a year or two ago by order of the Common Council, at an expense of from $1 50 to $1 for each tree, are now nothing but leafless trunks, having died from bad usage and neglect.

PAYING WARRANTS.—As there exists some perplexity in the public mind as to whether county orders are now being paid, and where, we are requested by Mr. Steel to state that he is paying warrants at his office [illegible] and [illegible] First street.

ACQUITTED.—After being out about three hours the jury in the case of State vs Chas. Grant returned a verdict of not guilty. The defendant was at once released from custody.

DISCHARGED.—The county court discharged J[illegible] Kelly and Richard Straub Monday, from the County Hospital for willful disobedience of the order of the Superintendent.

STEAMER.—The steamer Ajax arrived last night from San Francisco with passengers and freight about 12 [illegible]. The passenger list was published in our issue of Monday.

REGULAR MEETINGS.—Hereafter regular meetings of the members of the G A R, will be held on Thursday, instead of Saturday evenings.

PARTED.—The wire cable at the Stark street ferry parted yesterday afternoon. The accident occasioned some delay and trouble.

HAYING.—The farmers of Washington county are now in the midst of their hay harvest. Hay will average $12 per ton delivered.

A Chinese Duel

A fight at Virginia, Montana, between two Chinamen named Mung Gee and Chung Ho, is thus graphically described by the [illegible]:

Throwing aside their outer garments, and each arming with a huge knife and an ugly cleaving hatchet, they faced each other for the fray. [illegible] He, fearing arrest, fled. About this time the police arrived upon the scene. At the request of Mary, Gee was put in his little bed for repairs and a physician summoned. Although horribly mutilated, Gee may possibly recover. The wound in the neck is not so deep as was hoped, and the jugular vein was unfortunately missed, but his facial attractions will always lack their usual amount of cheek, and his genial voice will be marred by the absence of nearly all his front teeth. The section of his left ear is the only relic the authorities have of Ho, and even that will be relinquished to the medical faculty on application.

DID PAUL HAVE A WIFE?—It was an early question whether the Apostle Paul was married. The passage in the epistle to the Corinthians, in which he speaks of himself as unencumbered with domestic cares, does not preclude the notion that he might have been a widower—does not even prove more than that he went on his missionary journeys alone. On the other hand, he speaks of his assent to the death of Stephen, and of his commission from the Sanhedrim—functions and powers that could not well have been exercised by a man who was not a member of that council. But we are expressly told that this great assembly of the Jews included only fathers, to secure a merciful interpretation of the law. An early explanation, too, of the "true yoke fellow" at the church in Philippi, whom he bids labor to reconcile or assist Euodia and Syntyche, recognizes the wife of the apostle in the phrase. The epistle was, it may be said almost certainly, written from Rome and during the time of that imprisonment in which the perils of the apostle's situation were aggravated by sorrow, and ultimately the desertion of many among his friends.—"Paul of Tarsus," by a Graduate.

Victor Hugo says: "A crime against a child is a crime against God." Yesterday in our neighborhood a bright little boy of three summers, with curly hair, light blue eyes and happy face, forgetting his mother's prohibition, strayed outside the front yard. She brought him back with great violence, beat him with her clinched fists, threw him upon the ground and dragged him into the house, beating him furiously all the while, notwithstanding his piteous pleading. That was a crime against the child, not alone in the pain and indignity inflicted, but because as he grows up, a sense of injustice may harden him against his parents, and drive him out to war upon society. It is a crime against God thus to afflict and mar His "little ones," and implant seeds of distrust, hatred and revenge in their hearts. The mother who, standing over the little grave that hides her child, is tormented by such recollections, bears an unappeasable sorrow.—Exchange.

A correspondent of the Elko Independent describes three lakes at the head of Lamoille Creek. He says: "They are surrounded by a beautiful grove of tamarac trees, and a luxuriant vegetation. About one half mile from them, and but a short distance from the summit of one of the highest peaks of the range, is a lake about 300 yards in diameter, and in the shape of a punch bowl, imbedded in the naked peak, no trees and no vegetation. The water is so transparent that you can see hundreds of feet beneath its surface. This is the source of the south fork of the Humboldt, the water from which plunges down nearly perpendicular, a distance of about one quarter of a mile. The scenery, for grandeur, is but little inferior to that of the Yosemite."

PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.—1860—X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

The Angel of Patience

Beside the [illegible] way,
Lonely and dark, by fruits and flowers unblest,
Which my worn feet tread sadly day by day
Longing in vain for rest.

An angel softly walks
With pale, sweet face, and eyes cast meekly down,
The while from withered leaves and flowerless stalks
She weaves my fitting crown.

A sweet and patient grace,
A look of firm endurance, [illegible]
Of suffering meekness [illegible]
Shining [illegible]
And when my fainting heart
Desponds and murmurs at its adverse fate,
Then quietly the angel's bright lips part,
Whispering [illegible]
[illegible]
"The Father [illegible]
Girds thee with patient strength and [illegible]
And [illegible]

Angels, behold, I [illegible]
Wearing the thorny crown through [illegible]
Wait till the hand shall open the eternal gate
And [illegible] flowers.

BALD HEADS.—Hair is essential to the perfect condition of the brain. Now this assertion may seem ridiculous when it is well known that the world's great men, from Julius Cæsar down to the present year of grace, are as bald as a goose egg.

There is a nice physiological point involved in this matter of a no-haired skull, but it would take too much time to explain the how, and besides, it would require several technical terms which nobody but doctors could understand—and scarcely one in ten of those learned gentlemen. If bald men accomplish so much without hair, who knows what they would have done with it?

Now it is morally certain as any proposition in science, when the bulbs out of which each hair springs are destroyed, no preparation will regenerate them, therefore waste neither money nor labor in buying hair regenerators.

If the hat had air holes from boyhood up to manhood, ventilation would put a stop to baldness. Light open bonnets save the ladies from that calamity, unless they abuse their long tresses by over stretching them with combs.

Hats, like the best constructed houses, must have provision for free circulation of air through them. Hatters, therefore, have the benefit of science for their guide.

The London Court Journal says: Though Gen. Schenck has had some not very pleasant duties to perform since he has been in this country, he is a good deal liked. He gives pleasant receptions on Saturday evenings at his house in Portland Place. Having his right arm wounded in the war, he shakes hands with his left. He is not exactly a Talleyrand, but he has some able men around him, and Evarts, the American lawyer, who is retained to advise the American government at Geneva, is a very clever man, so clever that his fellow countrymen think that Lord Granville will fare no better in his hands than a bird under the influence of a snake.

OLD SHIPS.—There is a ship now sailing from Holland, built in 1598, when the Prince of Orange was fighting Philip II., of Spain, then at the zenith of his power. A few weeks since, in the Boston Daily Advertiser, there is a notice that the whale ship Rousseau (one of Stephen Girard's ships, built at Philadelphia in 1801) was then undergoing repairs at New Bedford. Her planking is being removed, the first time for seventy years. The live oak timbers underneath are reported to be as sound as they were the day they were first put together.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Gold in New York to-day, 113⅝.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 87½c buying; 88¼ selling.

The brig Perpetua is now due from San Francisco with an assorted cargo.

The brig Orient was towed down the river this afternoon by the Merrimac. She will load with lumber at Cementville.

The ship A. M. Small is now lying at Astoria, ready to proceed to sea. Her entire cargo amounts to 1,650 short tons of Wheat.

The bark Whistler, Capt. Simpson, arrived at Callao, June 9th. She sailed from San Francisco.

The Almatia was laid on berth at San Francisco on the 27th ult., and is now ready to sail for this port. The Rival is to follow.

The little schooner Milo Bond sailed this evening for Tillamook with a full cargo of produce and assorted merchandise.

A San Francisco report speaking of the Wheat market, says: "At the present time shipowners seem to be masters of the situation. Vessels are engaged as fast as they arrive, at the high rate of £4 per ton. The difference between this and the ordinary rate of freight has to come out of the price of Wheat. As the Liverpool market continues to decline, Wheat in this market must rule very low, even should no further advance in freights take place."

The San Francisco Commercial Herald states that the effect of the release of duties upon coffee has had the effect of raising the price of that article, holders being of the opinion that the consumption will increase so largely as to exceed the supply. The cultivation of Coffee, like that of the vine, is a thing of slow growth, requiring from four to five years before the receipt of any product, and being accompanied with considerable expense. Besides, it is the product of countries where money is dear, and the loss of interest for a long time becomes matter for serious consideration. Owing to these and other adverse influences, the area of coffee cultivation is not extended with rapidity, and the pursuit is only forced by occasional remarkable demands.

We take the subjoined from a San Francisco paper:

There is no Coal in first hands, and no Pig Iron to be had for immediate pressing wants. There is no scarcity of Coffee, yet supplies are waning rapidly, and the market very firm. Sugars arrive sparingly from every quarter, and prices are hardening for all descriptions. Our Hawaiian friends at the Islands will do well to hurry forward their supplies. Imports early in the year were very considerable, but of late, supplies have fallen below the average. Rice is very plentiful, and being, for the most part, high cost, will necessarily entail some loss upon the Chinese shippers. The stock of Teas, both free and in bond, is unusually light, and we enter July with the new law for free goods under the best possible circumstances; while Eastern marts are glutted with stocks aggregating forty million pounds, we are almost out of old stock and prepared for the new crop under auspices that must be greatly to our advantage.

Mining Intelligence.

The Baker City Democrat has intelligence of operations on the Oro Fino quartz ledge near Auburn. Specimens are exhibited showing remarkably rich gold-bearing rock. Says the Democrat: One piece, weighing a small fraction over three ounces, is worth $50, and an ordinary buckskin purse full of the quartz is estimated to be worth not less than $600. The vein from which it was taken is about six inches in width, and gradually enlarges, and is all very rich;—but of course not near as rich as the specimen to which we have just referred. The 10-stamp steam quartz mill, over at Pocahontas, was started again last Saturday, and is now engaged in crushing quartz from the Oro Fino. From present appearances it would seem that its owner has struck it rich indeed; and we most sincerely hope they will not prove delusive.

Assays from Banner District, Idaho, show promising results. One sample assayed $343 to the ton of 2,000 lbs., second sample, $329. The Boise Statesman says that Banner District will soon make a good name for itself as a rich and prosperous region.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President:

Of Illinois.

For Vice President:
HENRY WILSON,
Of Massachusetts.

For Presidential Electors,
W. D. HARE, of Washington.
J. F. GAZLEY, of [illegible].
A. B. MEACHAM, of Umatilla.

Election, Tuesday, Nov. 5, 1872.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

1. [illegible]

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. Neither law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect of citizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured those amendments.

4. The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal, is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a lifetenure of office.

6. We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the National domain be set apart for free settlement by the people.

7. The annual revenue, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt, and except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, be raised by duties on importations, which should be adjusted to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and to promote the industries and growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for the country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to length of service or the cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, "once a subject always a subject," having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of the right of an individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Government, and we urge continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way proposed for reductions in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital, and for labor which creates capital, the largest opportunities add a just share of the mutual profits of those two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of public debts, in any form or disguise as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt, and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, their application for admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction; and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party proposes to respect all rights reserved by the people to themselves, as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments. It disapproves of resorting to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by the interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government.

17. It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U. S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start today on a new march to victory.

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs fully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of [illegible] has returned from visiting the principal [illegible] Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his [illegible] may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering of a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system? Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down [illegible] disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life destroying maladies, see that they are cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, [illegible] intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily that he has been cured of the complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to seek immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written agreement, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars in a registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s, a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary [illegible] of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be seen in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became doctors [illegible] Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, [illegible] intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make [illegible] will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets [illegible] physicians in eight cases [illegible] there is no safety in trusting any of them unless you know who and what they are. [illegible] patients' letters, etc. [illegible] Address Dr. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearny street, [illegible] San Francisco, or Post Office Box 1,957.
REMEMBER TO [illegible] BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.
